

CALL FOR BOOK CHAPTER PROPOSALS

Book title: G. W. F. Hegel. Critical studies

Editor (s): Dr. Milton Abellón

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS IN EDITED BOOK

The Faculty of Social and Human Sciences of the Central University of Ecuador (UCE) and FILOSÓFICA, Fundación for Philosophical, Political and Cultural Studies, invite the academic community to submit proposals for chapters for an edited book that will address the philosophical thought of G. W. F. HEGEL.

This volume seeks to analyze the most important topics of Hegel's philosophical System in his early and mature texts, as well as contemporary readings and appropriations that show the vitality of his philosophy to think about current problems.

The edited book will summarize the main themes and problems of Hegel's theoretical and practical philosophy and the most relevant contemporary appropriations.

Readers will be able to understand the Hegelian idealism, its internal complexity and its transformations, its impact on subsequent philosophy, and the innovations that have occurred in recent decades.

SCOPE

The book will be edited and compiled by Dr. Milton Abellón, Professor of the University of Buenos Aires and Researcher of the National Scientific and Technical Research Council (CONICET). It will be published in the COLECCIÓN FILOSÓFICA ACTUAL with the logo of the UCE University Press, Faculty of Social and Human Sciences.

This call is open to scholars associated with the disciplines of Philosophy, Political Science, Sociology, Anthropology, History and other fields of the Social and Human Sciences. Individual and co-authored proposals will be accepted.

STRUCTURE OF THE BOOK

The book consists of three sections. The first section studies Hegel's theoretical philosophy. The second section analyzes his practical philosophy. The third section is dedicated to contemporary readings of the German philosopher in the light of current issues.

MAIN THEMES AND LINES OF RESEARCH

- Logic
- Method
- Philosophy of Nature
- Philosophy of Spirit
- Philosophy of Subjective Spirit
- Philosophy of Objective Spirit
- Philosophy of Absolute Spirit
- Phenomenology of Spirit
- Philosophy of History
- History of Philosophy
- Aesthetics

METHODOLOGICAL SCOPE

The topics of the chapters are not limited to those proposed in the previous point, but they must be framed within the general narrative. We welcome any theoretical perspective relevant for the topic in question. Chapters with quantitative, qualitative, or mixed methods may also be proposed. It is suggested that each chapter contains a brief historical, theoretical, and methodological section. For doubts or questions about the methodological scope, please write to hegel@fundacionfilosofica.com

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Send the abstract of the chapter to the email address hegel@fundacionfilosofica.com with the subject: "Abstract of book chapter". Important dates are in the next section. The abstract should not exceed 250 words and the chapters should not exceed 12000 words and at least 9000 words excluding the bibliography. It should clearly describe the purpose of the chapter, area of contribution, research question, hypothesis (if applicable), methodology (if applicable) and the initial plan of the theoretical organization.

IMPORTANT DATES

Start of abstract submissions: June 15th, 2023

Abstract submission deadline: July 31st, 2023

Notification of selected proposals: by August 31st, 2023

Deadline for submission of finished chapter: January 31st, 2024

GUIDELES FOR ACCEPTED CHAPTERS

The chapters must follow the following guidelines:

- The chapter must have only one main title, without subtitles.
- The author(s) must identify their current academic or institutional affiliation as footnotes, including the biographical summary of each author(s).
- The first draft must include an abstract in Spanish and English, with a maximum length of 250 words.
- Manuscripts should not exceed 12,000 words, excluding references, and a minimum of 9,000 words.
- The draft and the final version must be sent as a World Document (.doc or .docx).
- Font: Times New Roman, 12 pt.
- Spacing: Text double spaced and aligned to the left, except in tables and figures. Two spaces after the end period of a sentence.
- Margins: 2.54 cm on the entire page.
- Indentation: five spaces on the first line of each paragraph.
- Tables without lines separating cells.
- Footnotes must be Times New Roman font, 10 pt, single spaced.
- Italics will be accepted as font style for words that are in a language different than what the chapter is written in. The use of bold or underlined in symbols, words, tables, or graphics is not allowed.
- Tables and figures will have descriptive titles. All table notes will indicate sources immediately below the table. Column titles will clearly define the data presented. The graphs and tables will be in black and white. Color images will not be received. Send tables and graphs in a separate Excel file that allows the edition of size and font.
- For citations in the body of the text and bibliographic references, only the APA 7.0 standard will be used.

RIGHTS

It is a condition for the chapter's publication that the author(s) cede(s) the reproduction rights to the Central University of Ecuador (UCE) and Filosófica. This must be specified in a cover letter, a form with the author's information and a letter of agreement for the cession of rights. Failure to comply with these rules of collaboration shall constitute grounds for rejection of the chapter.

BIBLIOGRAPHICAL REFERENCES

Citations and bibliographic references will use the American Psychological Association seventh edition (APA 7.0) system.
